one of the members?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, it would not.

SENATOR LABEDZ: In other words, the Governor could if he chooses to do so, appoint one of his three at large as a member of the commission to be a member of the Commission on the Status of Women?

SENATOR BEUTLER: He certainly could, Senator Labedz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, discussing the Newell amendment to the committee amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, Senator Newell's amendment will somewhat mitigate the damage that was done by the adoption of Senator Beutler's amendment. I wanted to try to get for you the specific number of persons on the Judicial Nominating Commission. This is distinct from that qualifications which does the coverups on the judges but this one determines which ones are going to be judges. Now for sure there are four lawyer members, four lawyer members in addition to judges. And the statute under the pushing of the lawyers in the Bar Association said that the lawyer members shall be chosen by lawyers. The Governor will make certain appointments such as the representatives from the Supreme Court and four citizen members. They will be appointed by the Governor and some of them are lawyers, remember. But when it comes to the four at large lawyers and there is nothing more dangerous than a lawyer at large. They are to be chosen by lawyers and I'm sure that were I to make an effort to take that special interest provision out of this statute I could not get it done because the lawyers would insist that only lawyers can handle lawyer matters. Yet who should do more in terms of determining who should be a judge than the citizens who are going to be victimized by the judges in some instances? Judges take care of lawyers because all a judge is is a lawyer wearing a long dress, a gown, and has a wooden hammer but, nevertheless, he is a
